Sanctify the Moment - Sponsor a Portion in the FJMC Sefer Haftarah Scroll With a Dedication

Haftarah readings from the prophets have complemented weekday and holiday Torah portions for almost two thousand years. The chanting of a haftarah has become a way to sanctify special moments in people's lives.

The FJMC Sefer Haftarah is a collection of Haftarah readings during the year, including those from Shabbat, the holidays, Rosh Chodesh and other special occasions such as the Haftarat of Consolation.

What makes the FJMC Haftarah scroll so special? It's easy to read with large size print, vowels and cantillation. The FJMC Scroll travels around the country, between the congregations of FJMC affiliated Men's Clubs for teaching and outreach purposes. Thousands of people have chanted Haftarah from this scroll, many for the first time.

There is an opportunity for each haftarah portion in the scroll to have a sponsored dedication, with such dedication being scribed right on the scroll at the beginning of the portion. Most have already been dedicated, but there are a few that have not. The dedication can be made by a Men's Club, a congregation, a family or an individual. The inscription can be written in English, Hebrew or both.

The cost of sponsoring a dedication in the FJMC Sefer Haftarah is $1,000. To become a sponsor, fill out this form or contact the FJMC Sefer Haftarah Chevra at international@fjmc.org, for further information.
