fjmc™ INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

EMBRACING CHANGE • ENERGIZING COMMUNITIES

Federation of Jewish Men's Club International Biennial Convention

Leadership Innovation Community

The FJMC mission is to involve Jewish Men in Jewish Life by building and strengthening Men's Clubs in the Conservative / Masorti Movement. We accomplish this mission by:

LEADERSHIP	Mentoring leaders at the club, region and international level.
INNOVATION	Developing programming that better connects people of all ages to the Jewish community,
COMMUNITY	Forming meaningful long-lasting relationships based on camaraderie, common interests and core values.

"FJMC (Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs) is the umbrella organization for a confederation of more than 200 men's auxiliaries serving more than 20,000 men around the globe. In 2021, we amended our bylaws to welcome non-Masorti/Conservative clubs to affiliate as well as individuals unconnected to congregations, and have affiliated Reform, Orthodox, Masorti and Individual members. Our affiliated clubs are concentrated in North America throughout the United States and Canada. The influence of FJMC's programs and contributions are felt worldwide. FJMC's mission is to involve Jewish Men in Jewish Life. While the FJMC is an 'arm' of the Masorti/Conservative Movement, as a result of our bylaw changes, our affect goes beyond the Masorti/Conservative Movement. Our programs have a profound impact on our congregations, our families, our youth and world Jewry."

Dear Convention Attendees:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2025 FJMC Biennial Convention. Whether it is your first or sixteenth convention, I hope you find your time here in Chicago fun, informative and unforgettable. You will experience in person the ruach and excitement of networking with Jewish men like yourselves.

I still remember my first convention 28 years ago. I didn't know what to expect, but I soon discovered that I was in the company of other Jewish men that wanted to share their experiences, programs and kind spirit. I made lifelong friends and found mentors whose sole purpose was to help me grow as a man and a leader and to work with me for the betterment of my club.

As we move into a future of expanding community involvement and collaboration, we will continue to build on the successful initiatives including family focus and inclusion started by outgoing president Alan Budman. Our vision and mission are to bring new opportunities and personal growth to our men's community and to communities of Jewish men around the globe. We will expand our programming not only in Jewish life but also in your life and growth as a man. We will continue to extend a hand in friendship and collaboration to our LGBTQI+ community, our brothers of color and the community around us, as we have already started with our brothers of the Hizmet community. We are blessed to have a dynamic Executive Committee, involved Past International Presidents and our visionary Executive Director, Rabbi Noam Raucher.

FJMC has a Leadership Development Institute (sponsored by the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life). LDI provides intensive leadership training for emerging leaders at the club and regional levels. What I've learned in my years with FJMC was that the more involved I got, the richer my experience was. I've learned and continue to learn new skills, made many friends, work with the best mentors in the world and I've become a better leader and person. I urge you to offer your skills and abilities to your clubs, regions and at the international level. Please email me at btomar@fjmc.org to start your adventure in FJMC. I look forward to meeting you and convention and working with you in the months ahead.

Yours in brotherhood

July 4, 2025

There are so many people who contributed to the success we have enjoyed during the last two years. No administration is successful without many, many people working very hard to accomplish its goals, and the Budman/Tomar Administration was no exception. Please join me in thanking the Executive Committee Team of VPs, Marc Cohen, Creighton Cohn, Gary Katz, Alex Kiderman, Javier Rosenzwaig and Benny Sommerfeld, Treasurer Gregg Pollack, Secretary Bob Watts, Members David Glass, Danny Mandeau, Mitch Ross and David Singer, Regional Presidents' Chairs Phil Margolis and Dan Moldover, and my closest advisors and right-hand men, Honorary President Allan Kahan, 1st Vice President Bruce Tomar and Executive Director Rabbi Noam Raucher for the passion you brought to the table and the leadership you gave to your respective portfolios.

The Past International Presidents and mentors, who provided me guidance, support and dedication to the organization in my journey to and during this role, including: Dr. Jerome Agrest, Bob Levine, Dr. Robert Braitman, Norm Kurtz, Esq., Mark Berlin, Esq., Michael Mills, Myles Simpson, Allan Gottesman, Stan Greenspan, and Tom Sudow, and particular thanks to my pre-Presidential mentors Dr. Stephen Davidoff z"l, Burt Fischman z"l and Larry Allen, who trained me to be a leader long before I saw myself as one.

To all the various leaders of signature FJMC programs, including Shoah Yellow Candles Chairs Art Lashin and Ed Margolis, Marketing Chair Aaron Altman, Leadership Development Institute Chairs Rob Blitzer and Eric Yegelwel, Atid, Inclusion and International Chair Jerry Brodsky, IT and Website Chairs, Barry Balik, Norm Katz and Bob Watts, Friends Chair David Glass, Fischman Fund Chair David Kravitz, 311 and Foundation Chair Doug Segerman, New Club Recruiters Danny Mandeau and Lester Shapiro, Attracting Younger Members Chair Elliot Feldman, Combatting Antisemitism Chairs, Dan Granek z"l and Irv Varkoni, Israel Programming Chair Karl Rubin, WWW Chairs Len Abrams z"l and Bill Becker, HaD'Var Chair Lester Shapiro, Affinity and Webinars Chair Bruce Fagan, Convention Chairs Mark Givarz, Jay Steinmetz and Mitch Ross, and all the committee Chairs and members too numerous to mention. And a special thank you to Lisa Pollack, Administrator Extraordinaire.

And to all the other men (and women) who made all the various facets of our organization function smoothly and successfully at all levels, thank you for your dedication and passion to the FJMC. Yasher Koach!

And finally, to my wife, Susan, our children, Heather and her husband Chris, Traci and her husband Dustin, and our beautiful granddaughters Isabella and Avary, I thank you for your support and love. I love you all!

Thank you!

ATID – a look to the future

FJMC is the international umbrella organization for a confederation of approximately 200 men's auxiliaries serving over 14,000 men around the globe but, right now concentrated in North America. FJMC's mission has been to involve Jewish men in Jewish life. Our signature programs have a profound impact on our congregations, our members, men generally and world Jewry.

For almost 100 years FJMC has been providing men activities and programs that allow them to be themselves and make friends with other men who similarly enjoy religious, social and philanthropic opportunities. Today men participate in FJMC programming online and in-person internationally, regionally and locally.

At this time our organization, to our credit, asked itself questions about ongoing sustainability, marketing, governance, observance, and rebranding as we continue to be a relevant and meaningful source of community in men's lives.

Yours in brotherhood

On behalf of the FJMC and the Midwest Region, Welcome to Chicago, the "Windy City"!

What a journey we've had together! Our last Convention in 2023 in Philadelphia, under the theme "Make Your Own History," was a blast—and here we are again, ready to create more amazing memories. Chicago holds a special place in our hearts. Back in 2021, this very hotel was set to host us before Covid-19 had other plans, turning our Convention into a virtual "Taste of Convention." But now, we're back in full force and ready to embrace this incredible city in person.

Change is the one constant, isn't it? Think of everything that's evolved in the past few years: from global shifts to developments in Israel and beyond. For nearly a century, the FJMC has provided countless opportunities for men to connect, celebrate, and grow through religious, social, and philanthropic activities. And here's the thing—FJMC isn't just accepting change; we're charging ahead! We've uncovered major trends shaping our membership: Community and Relationships, an Increasingly Diverse Membership, and Questions about our Existence and Identity. This Convention is our first bold step toward embracing change, and we're ready to "Embrace Change & Energize Communities."
Throughout the week, you'll hear the Hebrew word Atid, which means "Future," as we focus on adapting and innovating together. Check out our expanded Ritual Experiences—a sneak peek into how we're shaking things up this year! We've got surprises, energy, and plenty of ruach in store.

So why hold a Convention now? To connect, laugh, learn, and empower each other! Fun and meaningful moments—that's our recipe for success. We've planned an unforgettable experience that will leave you inspired and energized to lead the way forward.

Every Convention is unique, but one thing is certain—the ruach and fellowship we share create magic every single time. So, on behalf of Jay Steinmetz, my fantastic 2025 Convention Vice Chair, and incredible advisors Danny Mandeau and Rick Wronzberg ("with a ZED")—welcome! Get ready for four days of unforgettable memories, new knowledge, and friendships that will strengthen your club, synagogue, and region.

This Convention wouldn't be possible without our dream team—a group of talented individuals from across Canada and the United States. As Convention Chair, it's been my honor to lead this team, fostering collaboration and empowering them to shine as leaders in their own right. With the support of Alan Budman, our FJMC President, and incoming President Bruce Tomar, we've curated an amazing experience for everyone.

Shoutout to the superheroes behind the scenes: Programming Chair and Co-Chairs Mitch Ross, David Glass, and Rob Blitzer; Marketing Co-Chairs Bruce Fagan and Bruce Martin; IT wizard Norm Katz; Convention Controller Mitch Daks; and Ritual Chair Jay Englander. You'll find the full list of our dedicated Convention Team listed in this Tribute—please thank them when you see them. Their hard work, enthusiasm, and months of dedication have made this event a reality.

So, let's make this Convention one for the books! Jump in, have fun, and let's embrace the future together. Welcome to Chicago—it's time to energize!

Foundation Letter

To All Convention Attendees, Foundation Fellows, and Legacy Members

On behalf of the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, it is with great pride and heartfelt appreciation that I welcome you to the 2025 FJMC International Convention which marks a transfer in the Foundation's leadership, allows us to reflect on and celebrate our accomplishments, and gives us the opportunity to look ahead to a promising future.

Since 2003, the Foundation has been instrumental in partnering with the FJMC to award grants fostering leadership, innovation, and community among Conservative / Masorti Jewish Men. Our commitment ensures that the guiding values which make us better fathers, spouses, and Menchen continue as a legacy for future generations. Your support of the FJMC Foundation transforms your gifts into grants which allows the FJMC to continue enriching the lives of Jewish Men. I encourage all of you to find out more about how you can support the Foundation as a current donor (Fellow) or as part of your estate planning progress (Legacy Society).

I am happy to report the Foundation issued more grant dollars over the past 2 years than it has in any time in its history. In addition, it ended the fiscal year with a historial record for assets. This means we can still fulfill our mission while maintaining the necessary financial tools to provide support for the future. This achievement is in no small part due to the great work of our Board and our officers for the past two years. Specifically, thank you to Warren Sufrin, Ken Turkewitz, and Peter Gotlieb for the tremendous effort that you made toward the success of the Foundation.

As we move forward, may this convention be a source of inspiration, connection, and renewal for us all. Let us continue to learn from one another, support each other, and build a future rooted in excellence, unity, and purpose. In that light, I am excited to see what our new officers, Steve Dix (Chair), Ken Turkewitz (Treasurer), and Jeff Schulman (Secretary) will do in guiding this organization through continued growth and successes.

Finally, thank you to my wife, Shana, and my children Emma and Jack for supporting me, loving me, and agreeing to share me with my FJMC friends over the last 21 years.

With sincere thanks and warmest regards,

Douglas Segerman

BRANDON JOHNSON
MAYOR

July 3, 2025

Dear Friends:

As Mayor and on behalf of the City of Chicago, I am honored to welcome all those gathered for the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs 2025 Convention.

Since its founding, the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC) has worked to foster brotherhood in the Jewish community through clubs across the United States and Canada. Through these clubs FJMC supports many initiatives including equity, mental and health care, interfaith events, and support for the Jewish community in Uganda. Through their efforts FJMC is building community, spreading awareness, and promoting Jewish history and culture.

This event will bring together members from around the world to network, inspire, and learn. With a full schedule of keynote speakers, plenary sessions, and networking events, attendees will gain the tools and resources needed to move their chapters forward. I congratulate all of this year's award recipients and honorees, and I commend the FJMC for their ongoing efforts in the Jewish community.

I hope that during your stay in Chicago you take the time to see all the city has to offer. Explore our downtown and lakefront areas, tour the vibrant neighborhoods across our city, sample our diverse cuisine, visit our distinguished universities, and our world-class museums.

I hope your event is memorable and enjoyable. Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Mayor

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the City of Chicago, and as the only Jewish member of the Chicago City Council, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to our great city for the 2025 Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs Biennial Convention.

I am thrilled that nearly 400 Jewish leaders and participants from across North America will be gathering to pray, learn, celebrate, and strengthen the bonds of community. In a time when Jewish life is being tested by rising antisemitism and radicalization, your collective presence here in Chicago sends a powerful message of unity, resilience, and pride.

As a proud advocate for the Jewish community, I commend your tireless efforts to strengthen Jewish identity, support synagogues, and foster the next generation of Jewish leadership. Please know that the City of Chicago—and especially the vibrant Jewish community I am proud to represent—welcomes you with open arms.

Thank you for choosing Chicago as the home for your convention this year. I wish you all a successful and enriching experience.

Sincerely,

Alderman Debra Silverstein

FJMC: A LEGACY OF INNOVATION AND GROWTH

The history of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs can be measured by how well its leadership has adhered to its mandate: building a network of Men's Clubs to strengthen the Jewish home, synagogues, and the Conservative Movement. In the mid-1920s Rabbi Samuel M. Cohen, then Director of the United Synagogue of America, conceived of bringing together leaders from existing Conservative Movement Men's Clubs into a "National Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs of the United Synagogue of America." He envisioned that this group would foster an interchange of ideas to help them focus on their common needs.

NFJMC members served on United Synagogue committees and held positions of leadership. They also developed several programs such as the Pocket Calendar/Diary and the Tract Series. These were entrusted to United Synagogue because it was better positioned to distribute and maintain them.

At first, the NFJMC was housed in the Jewish Theological Seminary and was supported financially by United Synagogue through the Joint Campaign. Beginning in the 1940s, that financial support was gradually reduced. In 1967 the NFJMC relinquished any support and became an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.

The early NFJMC leadership came from the New York and Philadelphia areas. In 1952 it elected Albert Jacobson from Chicago president, its first leader from beyond the East coast. This made the NFJMC became unique among Conservative Movement organizations by not viewing New York as the center of the Jewish community in North America. Today, the FJMC remains the only Conservative Movement organization to have elected presidents from Canada, and was the first to elect presidents from the Midwest and the West coast. With the growing strength of Canadian Men's Clubs, the adjective "National" was dropped from the organization's name in 1983. Today, the international Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs is known simply by its acronym, FJMC.

CONVENTIONS

Conventions have played an important role since the first one in 1931. Held annually at first, the conventions became biennial in 1979. They have proven to be an important opportunity for Men's Club officers, members, and the international leadership to meet, share experiences, and learn from each other. In 1983, FJMC expanded its convention programming to provide training for club and regional officers, with lay leaders as instructors. Two years later, FJMC established the Ma'asim Tovim Award to be presented at each convention to men who have made outstanding contributions to their regions and communities.

Torch Awards are presented to clubs to recognize outstanding programming. New FJMC programs and initiatives are unveiled and showcased at biennial conventions, such as the first Art of Jewish Living program in 1985, Hearing Men's Voices in 1999, and Keruv in 2003. The 1974 FJMC convention in Los Angeles was the first in the Conservative Movement to be held on the West coast. In 1977, FJMC convened in Montreal where, for the first time, a major arm of the Conservative Movement elevated a Canadian to its presidency.

The more recent conventions were held in Weston, Florida (2005), Chicago (2007), Philadelphia (2009), Orange County, Southern California (2011), Boston (2013), Miami (2015), Washington, DC (2017), Toronto (2019), Virtually (2021) and now Philadelphia (2023).

BREAKING NEW GROUNDS

In 1961, FJMC sponsored the first organized trip to Israel by a Conservative Jewish organization. FJMC's Rosh Hashanah Greeting Card Program, introduced in 1970, was the first of its kind among Jewish organizations and since has been adopted by B'nai B'rith, Jewish War Veterans, and others.

The Century Club (later FJMC 100) adopted this program and merged since 2004 into the Foundation for Jewish Life. The Foundation created a stronger vehicle to provide effective funding to serve our constituency, established in 1978 to provide seed money for new projects through individual $100 annual contributions. These programs included the Hebrew Literacy campaign, the Art of Jewish Living series, the Shabbat Morning Torah service videotape, and the "Prayers and Invocations" booklet.

History

HEBREW LITERACY

In 1975, ŋMC introduced the first of several educational programs that have moved the organization to the forefront of the Conservative Movement. Rabbi Noah Golinkin created for ŋMC a lay person-to-lay person method of teaching synagogue Hebrew. He designed this unique approach to provide members of congregations with lay role models and a sense of comfort within the synagogue.

The Hebrew Literacy Program uses two universally known prayers to teach Hebrew literacy, and consists of two volumes Shalom Aleichem (1975) was based on the Friday evening service, and Ayn Kelohenu (1981) focused on the Shabbat morning service. Since this program's inception, more than 180,000 people have gained the ability to follow and participate in synagogue services.

RAMAH PROJECTS

In 1981, the Middle Atlantic Region built an indoor recreation center for Camp Ramah in the Poconos with funds raised through an annual concert series. This effort marked the first time an ŋMC region took an active role in supporting other Conservative Movement programs, greatly enhancing the image of the Men's Club movement in the region.

Two years later, the Western Region adopted the Tikvah program to provide a Jewish camping experience for children with special needs at Camp Ramah in California. In 1989, the Great Lakes Region committed to building a guest facility for Camp Ramah in Canada and dedicated it in 1995. That same year, the New England Region adopted Camp Ramah in New England's Tikvah program, while the Southeast and Florida Regions began the drive to create Ramah Darom, which opened in northwestern Georgia in Summer 1997. In 1999, New York Metro Region laid the groundwork for an innovative program for challenged children at Ramah Berkshires.

ART OF JEWISH LIVING

ŋMC enlisted Ron Wolfson in 1985 to develop materials to create a total living and learning environment around key Jewish holidays. Tens of thousands of our synagogue members and Russian immigrants have developed a sense of competence with ritual matters and a sense of ease in the synagogue through the Art of Jewish Living series. The first book, on the Shabbat Seder, was followed in 1987 by the Passover Seder book (later translated into Russian). Next followed the Hanukkah volume and then a final publication, A Time to Mourn, A Time to Comfort.

YOM HASHOAH YELLOW CANDLE PROGRAM

The Beth Tzedec Men's Club of Toronto originally developed the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle Program in 1983 to provide both Jews and non-Jews with a meaningful ritual that would enable them to observe Yom HaShoah in their homes. ŋMC adapted and expanded it to become one of our most successful and far-reaching ŋMC activities.

By 1991, its third year as an ŋMC international program, more than 100,000 families lit Yellow Candles in their homes to commemorate the Holocaust and keep alive the memories of the six million who perished. The program has expanded beyond ŋMC-member households to Women's League chapters; Hillel/B'nai Brith campus organizations; Reform, Reconstructionist, and Orthodox congregations; Jewish Community Centers, Holocaust Memorial Centers; church groups, and others.

In 1998, ŋMC created the From Darkness into Light scholarship program where by United Synagogue Youth members at congregations participating in candle distribution can receive scholarships for USY Eastern European Pilgrimage programs.

As the need for Holocaust remembrance grows, the ŋMC continues to expand its programmatic efforts. Current efforts include the opportunity to our synagogues to provide Yom HaShoah Yellow Candles to Masorti Congregation throughout the world.

THE WORLD WIDE WRAP

The World Wide Wrap has become one of the ŋMC's signature programs, as clubs around the world join to celebrate the mitzvah of tefillin. And we've brought participation into the 21st century with online registration and reporting of club's "wrap." Held on Super Bowl Sundays, in 2011, over 5,000 men "wrapped" tefillin. Now it's up to 25,000 men. Further, to help introduce the mitzvah to younger Jews, a companion program, Build-a-Pair allows fathers and their fifth through seventh grade children to create model "tefillin" and decorate them as they learn about the mitzvah.

History

SEFER HAFTORAH SCROLL

FJMC's desire to make men more ritually sensitive, foster Jewish learning, and enhance awareness of the importance of local Men's Clubs led to creation of the FJMC's Sefer Haftorah scroll in 2003. The scroll, consisting of all the Haftorot and written on parchment with vowels and cantillation, is circulated among Men's Clubs and at FJMC events. In addition, synagogues can purchase their own Sefer Haftarot scrolls.

INTERMARRIAGE CONCERNS: KERUV

In 2003, FJMC undertook to study the impact intermarriage and changing families have on the Conservative Jewish population in North America. Since then, two volumes and a host of seminars have been developed as FJMC continues to innovate and lead the Conservative Movement. FJMC's Keruv initiative actually began in 1999 with the goal of placing intermarriage on the agenda of the Conservative Movement. To date, more than 150 rabbis and 90 lay leaders have taken part in FJMC Keruv training programs. Currently, 54 congregations in North America have Keruv programs supervised by FJMC trained lay leaders and professionals. FJMC, a volunteer-led organization with minimal staff and maximum effectiveness, continues in the 21st century to be an innovative thinking and planning organization that understands the importance of the Conservative/ Masorti movement and the strength of commitment of members of Conservative synagogues. FJMC successfully involves Jewish men in Jewish life and is a significant component of the future of Conservative /Masorti Judaism.

ABAYUDAYA REGION (UGANDA, AFRICA)

The FJMC's newest region, the Abayudaya, has seven clubs in Uganda near the town of Mbale, a native Jewish community known as the "Abayudaya" or people of Judah. FJMC has been working with them for nearly five years, and they became an official region in 2018.

HEARING MEN'S VOICES

Hearing Men's Voices (HMV) is a unique program that engages Jewish men in Jewish life, enabling deeper connections and better relationships among men. The FJMC understood that men do not open up to each other or turn to each other for support. The FJMC and its HMV committee have prepared wonderful, turn-key materials to help clubs implement, facilitate, and manage Hearing Men's Voices' group.

IMAGINE LIFE

The FJMC came to realize that over 40% of the Jewish community were facing issues of mental or supporting someone who is struggling. The purpose of Imagine Life – A Mental Health Initiative Before It is Too Late, is to create awareness, prevention, and education for combating drug addiction, suicide, anxiety and depression, and to provide a model of support for families. The FJMC has partnered with the Blue Dove Foundation (Atlanta) to members of the community and to help develop a supportive structure.

The FJMC is encouraging -

- Education for the clergy to become a resource for congregational families.
- The synagogue venues become available for support groups.
- The Men's Clubs take the lead to initiate programs within their synagogues to honestly discuss mental health issues.
- Explore resources and partner with community agencies, such as the Jewish Family Services, NAMI and other who can provide the vital professional support that is needed.

ENGAGEMENT – AFFINITY GROUPS

Beginning in 2020, the FJMC realized that Men's Club and involving Men (and women) in Jewish life could not stop at the parking lot of the Synagogue. A number of efforts were begun to reach people where they are and around topics they are interested – in essence to build affinity.

History

The FJMC launched a number of online affinity groups around topics they have a passion for:

- Cooking
- Genealogy
- Investing
- Photography
- Sports
- Yiddish

Over 2,000 people have participated – men and women – and many are not affiliated with Men's Club or a Synagogue. We are engaging them where they are.

The FJMC also launched a series of Webinar around a variety of topics and also promote webinar and educational programs being held by Clubs, Regions, and partner organization. Together the Affinity Groups and Webinars have brought in over 1,000 people who previously were not affiliated with the FJMC and over 2,000 different FJMC members have participated.

OPENING UP

The FJMC realized that it can provide great value to the Jewish community and is planning on opening up is membership to any Jewish men's club and also will start to offer an individual Membership for people who do not belong to a men's club. The FJMC will still be strongly rooted in the practice of the Conservative /Masorti Judaism but will be open to anyone who wants to participate in the programs and activities of Involving Jewish Men in Jewish Life.

2021 - 2023 - We changed our bylaws and opened our doors to other men's groups and individuals not affiliated with Congregations, including Reform Brotherhoods, Orthodox Men's Clubs and men's groups connected to synagogues unconnected with the Masorti/Conservative movement. We've affiliated six Reform Brotherhoods, one Orthodox club, numerous additional Masorti/Conservative Clubs and more than fifty individual members.

In order to help our synagogues be more welcoming to underserved groups, we established the Inclusion Initiative, initially spearheaded by First Vice President Alan Budman and thereafter by Jerry Brodsky. The Women's League for Conservative Judaism was asked to partner in this initiative, and the large committee of members developed material and signage for congregations. Among the "Underserved Communities" that are the focus of the initiative are: Individuals with mental and/or physical health challenges; Jews of Color; LGBTQIA+ individuals; and Non-traditional Families, but over time and depending on the demographics and needs of particular congregations, the groups will expand.

To make our office operations more efficient and effective, in November 2021, we retained the services of Officense, an association management company located in Baltimore, Maryland. And we closed our New York City office, and moved our office records and organizational items into a storage unit. Our store and its items were ably maintained by our office assistant, Lisa Pollack.

We implemented strict financial controls and got our financial house in order. Funds due Region for dues subvention and yellow candle sales were deposited into our Savings Account until paid. Vendors were paid promptly. The organization ran surplus budgets for the entire Kahan-Budman administration.

While our Shoah Yellow Candle program had a decrease in candle sales due to the Covid Pandemic and many shules closed for normal operations, through the hard work and creative leadership of the Shoah Yellow Candle leadership, our candle sales rebounded in 2022-23. And, to show this FJMC signature initiative to a new generation, who might be unable to light a physical candle, a Shoah Yellow Candle App was developed for both Apple iOS and Android platforms, so that college students and seniors in senior housing could memorialize the Shaoh.

As our website was more than a dozen years old (ancient in tech terms) we retained a developer to do a wholesale revision of the FJMC site (which should make its appearance sometime in the summer of 2023) to make our message more appealing to a new generation of men.

We expanded our Affinity Groups to eleven in number, to help bring like-minded people together on subjects they are passionate about.

We created a group of Club Consultants, experienced fjmc leaders, to reach out to clubs needing assistance, and have a real person be there to help them make their clubs better. The group of Club Consultants will make their formal introduction at the Philadelphia Convention 2023.

Even during this time of Covid Pandemic, we juggled a few things, had one LDI as a Virtual Institute, but had two in-person gatherings which were well attended and introduced our emerging leaders to our organization.

We used the Burt Fischman Leadership Development Fund to make sure emerging leaders in the organization would have the funds necessary to participate in both Leadership Development Institutes and Convention, where their leadership skills could be 'polished.' We know that Burt, z''l, would be honored that his legacy of leadership development continues in his name.

And, we involved more men in various committees and FJMC initiatives then ever before, which will continue in the next administration.

And, after a lengthy and thorough search, we hired a new Executive Director, Rabbi Noam Raucher. As many small non-profits have closed their physical offices during Covid, and realized that with video conferencing, we are all closer than local visits, Rabbi Raucher is on the west coast, but connected to the leadership of the organization through modern technology.

SINCE 2023 EVENTS

- Club Recruitment Initiative formed implementing a new strategy.
- Strategy - Reachout beyond the Conservative movement - Reform, Reconstructionist, other
- Added 15 new clubs
- Taste of the FJMC webinars
- Individual Membership initiative
- New Texas Region established - 6 new clubs.

CLUB EXPANSION

From 2023-5 we have added 15 clubs to the organization from coast to coast and created a new Texas region. Several of the new clubs come from outside the Conservative movement which widened the umbrella of the FJMC.

We have introduced a "Taste of the FJMC" webinar series which allowed potential new members to find out more of what our organization has to offer.

We have also continued to reach out to Individual Members and will make this group a focus for our expansion efforts as we move forward.

FIGHTING ANTI-SEMITISM

It will be 636 days since Israelis and other nationalities were murdered or kidnaped from the NOVA Music Festival and surrounding towns and kibbutzim when the FJMC Biennial Convention convenes on July 3, 2025. Growing antisemitism before Oct 7, such as the Charlottesville Unite the Right march of Neo Nazi's has increased exponentially in the US and the globe after Oct 7. The FJMC's Committee to Combat Antisemitism, established following our 2023 Convention, aims to educate and inspire FJMC members to take action on behalf of our families, friends, and communities to combat antisemitism. We have established partnerships with the Anti-Defamation League and the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism (Blue Square Foundation). Regular online webinars examine antisemitism and inspire us to fight hate. Our FJMC Toolkit Newsletter shares information on calls to action issued by ADL and others to reach out to elected officials. Convention workshops this week are focusing on training professional and lay leaders to combat antisemitism, understanding the impact of antisemitism on Gen Z in high schools and colleges, and learning how to reach out to the community and elected leaders through ADL's Advocacy training.

HAD'VAR-THE WORD OF THE FJMC

Beginning in November of 2023, a reintroduced and reimagined online monthly international newsletter, 'HaD'Var-The Word of the FJMC', was proudly developed by a hardworking committee and distributed with the mission to inform and highly engage our entire organizational community. With nineteen editions published to date, HaD'Var has featured articles to highlight our various beneficial organizational initiatives, spotlight many of our regions, place focus on the unique stories of our leaders and members, offer spiritual guidance from our Executive Director Rabbi Noam Raucher, and as well provide general interest features to celebrate the many Jewish holidays as they came along. Creatively being multidimensional, HaD'Var also integrated photos and videos shared by our members and clubs, throughout our organization, within articles and features to highlight the support and engagement offered for their local communities. And to further highlight the grassroots of our organization, a monthly 'Regional Connections' section was instituted to share and feature regional newsletters and web reports from across our organization. To view our current, and all of our past editions, of HaD'Var, please visit the Media Section of the FJMC Website.

FJMC FIRSTS

In the Conservative Movement in North America, here are some of FJMC's firsts:

- Organization leader from beyond the East Coast
- Presidents from the Midwest, West Coast, and Canada
- Conventions on the West Coast and in Canada
- Sponsored trip to Israel
- Rosh Hashanah Greeting Card Program
- Active support of other Conservative Movement programs
- Online affinity groups

MEMORY FROM OUR ARCHIVE (2007 - CHICAGO)

The Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, a national organization, will join with the Midwest Region to honor 45 influential Chicago Jewish men as they hold their biennial convention July 11-15 at Indian Lakes Resort in Bloomingdale.

This is the first time the organization, which consists of 270 affiliated clubs, has held its convention in the Chicago area.

Selecting 45 influential Jewish men from a variety of professions was a way to tap into the "local flavor" of the region, Steve Lessman, a past president of the Midwest Region and local chairman for the convention, said.
"Chicago has had a strong, thriving Jewish community for well over 150 years," he said. "Jewish men from Chicago have made substantial contributions to American life in government, business, sports, entertainment, literature and religion, and it was really difficult to select these men as outstanding representatives of Chicago's Jewish community."

Noting the contribution of Chicago-era men to the organization, he pointed out that Arthur Goldberg, a former United Nations ambassador, U.S. Secretary of Labor and U.S. Supreme Court justice received its Distinguished Service Award in 1983. In addition, three past international presidents, Albert Jacobson, 1952-54; Mannye London, 1965-76; and Jerry Agrest, 1987-88, are from the Chicago area.

"Having our first FJMC convention here is a fitting venue to honor Jewish men from our community. Eleven of the 19 clubs in our region are in Chicagoland," Lessman said.

There are some 25,000 members throughout North America in the FJMC's affiliated clubs, Lessman said. The clubs are dedicated to involving Jewish men in all aspects of Jewish life.

During the week of the convention, each of the 45 men will have his individual biography displayed on the dining tables at the convention site.

The notable men are: Max Adler, Dankmar Adler, Ben Aronin, Jacob Arvey, Barney Balaban, Saul Bellow, Jack Benny, Henry Crown, Dr. Joseph Bolivar Delee, Leonard Dubkin, Rabbi Bernhard Felsenthal, Todros Geller, Arthur Goldberg, Bertrand Goldberg, Rabbi Solomon Goldman, Benny Goodman, Larry Goodman, Henry Greenbaum, Ben Hecht, Sidney Hillman, Rabbi Emil Hirsch, Milton Horn, Bernard Horwich, Gov. Henry Horner.

Also, Philip Klutznick, Irv Kupcinet, Sid Luckman, Julian Mack, Abraham Lincoln Marovitz, Abner Mikva, Steven Nasatir, Sol Polk, A.N. Pritzker, Jerry Reinsdorf, Admiral Hyman Rickover, Julius Rosenwald, Barney Ross, Dr. Theodore Sachs, Seymour Simon, Studs Terkel, Mel Torme, Maynard Wishner, Sidney Yates, Sam Zell.

For more information about the convention, call Lessman at (630) 368-9177.

ABAYUDAYA JEWS OF UGANDA: A COMMITTED AND DESERVING COMMUNITY

The Abayudaya is the Jewish community of Uganda, centered around the small city of Mbale and stretching into Kenya. This community was founded 106 years ago by military commander Semei Kakungulu. Today, the Abayudaya are about 2,000 Jews spread over several villages. The primary spiritual leader of the Abayudaya is Rabbi Gershom Sizomu, ordained in 2008 by the Ziegler School in LA. He is the first native-born black rabbi in sub-Saharan Africa and the first chief rabbi of Uganda. The community operates schools, the largest of which are the Hadassah Primary School and the Semei Kakungulu High School. The community has a USY chapter, as well as an FJMC-affiliated Men's Club founded by our brother Aaron Kintu Moses z"l, and now led by President Allan Zilaba. The Abayudaya have seen severe challenges over the past century. They were persecuted by Idi Amin, and the community shrank to a few hundred members forced to pray secretly in caves. Prior to COVID-19, the Abayudaya were growing in numbers and involvement with the global Masorti movement. In 2018, many young Abayudaya participated in the first Abayudaya Birthright trip to Israel. The pandemic and shutdown hit Uganda and the rural Abayudaya community very hard. They had to close their schools, and the adults were mostly unable to work. Their daily subsistence was threatened. Masorti organizations, including the FJMC, rallied to their support the community,. Now that the pandemic is past, the FJMC and the rest of the Conservative movement are needed to assist while the Abayudaya get back to work, with sustainable investments to help the community grow. A recent FJMC mission saw the results of our work, including the major chicken processing operation built by the Abayudaya Men's Club with support catalyzed by FJMC efforts, and other community-building projects.

For those inspired to participate in supporting the Abayudaya, we recommend these paths: 1. Get involved in our efforts by participating in our leadership. Please contact the FJMC Abayudaya Committee at abayudaya@fjmc.org. 2. Donate funds for the community and scholarships for the Hadassah Primary School. We will be relaunching a FJMC effort shortly and look for news on this page - https://fjmc.org/initiatives/abayudaya/. 3.For those with the means to get involved at a higher level, Rabbi Gershom Sizomu is looking for donors to help fund a microcredit program, whereby the Abayudaya can be loaned funds to start their own commercial enterprises. The Abayudaya have no intention of requiring our tzedakah forever, and they are moving forward. Together, we can help the Abayudaya build a sustainable, prosperous future for our Jewish brothers in east Africa.

EXCELLENCE IN PARTNERSHIP
MASORTI OLAMI

MASORTI OLAMI

Masorti Olami means Masorti/Conservative Judaism around the world. The organization was founded in 1957 under the name “The World Council of Synagogues, Inc” in New York, and later, Rabbi Joseph Wernik transferred the o ce to Jerusalem under the name Masorti Olami. The organization was founded with the dream of making Masorti/Conservative Judaism a force in the Jewish world.

Our strength also comes from our close partnerships with organizations from all across the Movement including Marom, MERCAZ Olami, NOAM Olami the FJMC and the Conservative/Masorti institutions throughout Israel and North America.

Today, together with our partners in Israel and North America, we represent ~2 million Jews around the world. We exist and thrive in six regions, including Latin America, Europe, Africa, Australia, and Asia. Masorti/Conservative Judaism o ers Jews a unique approach to Judaism. We practice a robust and Halachic Judaism firmly rooted in Torah and Mitzvot but fully integrated into our modern-day lives. We distinguish ourselves by examining the values of egalitarianism, pluralism, humanism, tolerance and democracy in the development of Jewish tradition alongside traditional halachic sources.

In addition to our larger regions, Masorti also has active communities in Australia, South Africa, Russia, Japan, and India, as well as the Abayudaya Jewish communities in Uganda and Kenya—rural communities in Africa whose religious journeys led them to convert to Judaism under the auspices of Masorti/Conservative rabbis. NOAM Olami, our very strong youth movement, spreads across 15 countries with 35 chapters and over 4,500 participants.

Masorti Olami is an International Jewish Organization within the World Zionist Organization (WZO) and it and its members and directors subscribe to the Jerusalem Program of the WZO. We invite you to visit our Masorti/Conservative congregations and discover new, vibrant egalitarian Jewish communities wherever your travels may take you.

Our Mission & Vision

Governing Principles: In carrying out its mission, Masorti Olami acts to advance the interests and principles of Masorti Judaism. It works with all other arms of the Conservative/Masorti movement, such as the FJMC to be an effective spokesperson for Masorti Judaism.

It's the study of Torah, in the fullest sense, and the transmission of its principles from generation to generation.

Health Challenge

FJMC Past President Bob Braitman has challenged the men of our community to commit to improving their health.

Goals

- To increase awareness of health and wellness issues by the men of our communities
- To encourage Men's Clubs to adopt wellness programming as an integral part of their mission
- To add visibility and vitality to Men's Club programming on a local level
- To create another “portal of entry” for men otherwise not involved to play an active role in their Men's Club

Young Men's Initiative

For more than a century, the FJMC has focused on serving and supporting Jewish men, by engaging them in Jewish life, bringing them together, cultivating strong relationships across generations and borders, and enriching the lives of our men, our synagogues and our communities.

Today, that mission still remains as strong as ever. But to truly be successful, we want to make sure we are reaching members of all ages, including the younger generations that are less likely to be affiliated with organizations – including synagogues. We remain committed to our longtime members and those who seek us out, but we also need to reach out to a new audience to remain vibrant for all.

So FJMC is embarking on a new international initiative designed to change our landscape and draw in more of the younger members of our diverse Jewish communities. To do so requires no shift in our mission. But it does require changes in how we think, how we operate, how we market, and how we program. In short, it's a new mindset for all of us.

Younger men – those in their 20s, 30s, and 40s – have different priorities than those in their 50s, 60s, 70s and beyond. They are starting or rising in their jobs. They are getting married, having kids, and raising families. They are building lives for themselves, and more involved with their families.

There are many demands – personal and professional – that are competing for their time and attention.

We need to meet them where they are, and engage them by acknowledging the importance of their families. We need to reconsider the types of events we plan, and when we hold them, so that they appeal to a broader mix of all ages and experiences. We need to diversify our offerings and programming. We need to find new ways to promote them to a different crowd. Our longtime events are still valuable, but we also need to think outside the box in which Men's Clubs have traditionally operated. Finally, we need to empower them to take ownership by developing and running their own programs if they choose.

JERRY BRODSKY

Jerry Brodsky is lead consultant and founder of American Educational Consultants. Having spent 35 years in the public schools, 28 years as a licensed practicing attorney in Ohio, and retiring from the superintendency of a high ranking school district, he currently provides consultative services to schools interested in improving student achievement, improving instruction for students with disabilities, and identifying opportunities for fiscal accountability of schools.

Jerry received his Bachelors of Science in Education and Masters in Education degrees from Kent State University and his Juris Doctor degree from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. At the age of 75 he recently received an Executive Masters of Science in Diplomatic Practice degree from Seton Hall University in conjunction with The United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) and is using that degree in his work as a Peace Corps participant helping university professors in Ethiopia, virtually.

Jerry has been happily married for over 53 years and has adult children and amazingly brilliant grandchildren. His work with FJMC includes being past-president of his local club and organizer of its young JMen, a past officer of his region, chaired FJMC's Atid Committee, currently chairs its Inclusion Committee, having been the chief editor of the FJMC Inclusion Resource Guidebook, and the renewed International Region, which under his leadership for the first time includes men in 9 different countries outside of North America.

Distinguished Service Awards

NORM KATZ

Norm Katz is the Chief Architect of Nuvee AI, a healthcare technology company that creates AI-based health companion apps to help patients dealing with chronic disease. Norm grew up in Philadelphia and attended Hebrew school and Junior Congregation at Ner Zedek, where he learned to davin shacharit at 11 years old. He attended Northeast High School, was president of his USY chapter, and received a bachelor's in computer science at Temple University. After college, Norm moved to San Diego, where he began a diverse engineering career applying his knowledge of image and signal processing and pattern recognition to defense, healthcare, law enforcement, and identity protection.

Norm has been happily married for 37 years to Roxanne Schindler Katz, daughter of Holocaust survivors, Max and Rose Schinder, z"l. Norm & Rox have twin girls Shannah and Nicki. When the girls were in preschool, Norm became active on committees and held several VP positions on the board of Tifereth Israel Synagogue, where he was invited by his colleagues Phil Snyder and Joel Kriger to become a club officer and later, club president. Norm attended LDI and his first biennial convention in Chicago in 2007, where he was inspired by Norm Kurtz's inauguration address as incoming FJMC President.

Shortly thereafter, Norm was invited to join the FJMC IT Committee and eventually became IT Director, a position which he still holds today. The IT committee provides vital services to FJMC and is staffed by an incredibly dedicated team of volunteers, each of whom commits 100s of hours each year to keep our website, your event registrations, fundraising campaigns, reports, and mailings running smoothly, day and night.

Norm will be serving as executive VP of Western Region in July 2025 and looks forward to becoming regional president in 2027 as well as taking on EC roles in the future. Norm is also a fellow of the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life. He is extremely honored to receive this award and looks forward to continuing to serve FJMC well into the future.

PRESIDENTIAL AWARD SECTION

Presidential Award 2025
Myles Simpson

Myles Simpson is a past International President of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, the umbrella organization serving men's clubs and individuals in Synagogues across North America and internationally. Leading up to that role, he served as President of his own Men's Club at Temple Etz Chaim in Thousand Oaks, CA, President of the FJMC Western Region, and held several FJMC positions including Chairman of the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle Program and Chairman of FJMC's 2011 International Convention. Myles was his Region's Ma'asim Tovim Honoree in 2007. He also served as Chair of the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, the organization that provides long-term financial support to the FJMC. In recent years Myles has been mentoring upcoming FJMC leaders at the club, region, and international levels, was involved in helping onboard our new Executive Director, and participated in the Atid Committee to help envision the future of FJMC.

Myles has been very involved in his Synagogue for the past 30 years. He has served on the Temple Board for several years, including Chair of the Search Committees for the Synagogue's Rabbi and Chazzan, Vice President of Religion and Worship, and Temple President from 2006-2008.

Myles has also served on the Boards of the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, the Jewish Theological Seminary, Mercaz USA, and served on several committees of United Synagogue and the Jewish Federation Council. He began his career in the Jewish volunteer world as President of a local chapter of Mogen David Adom.

Myles retired at the end of 2012 from the Boeing Company where he worked as an engineering manager. Prior to that Myles worked for an acoustics engineering consulting firm.

Myles and his wife Gail have been married for 55 years and have three wonderful sons and nine amazing grandchildren, who make them very happy and keep them young! In his spare time, Myles supports Gail in her tireless efforts for Na'amat, which is a social services organization in Israel. They were both awarded the Na'amat Distinguished Community Leader Award in 2017. Myles and Gail also enjoy traveling to interesting countries around the world, including visiting Israel regularly.

MARK & MATTHEW JACOB
Authors Presentation
& Book Signing

The original Harlem Globetrotters weren't from Harlem, and they didn't start out as globetrotters. The talented all-Black team, started by Jewish immigrant Abe Saperstein, was from Chicago's South Side and toured the Midwest in Saperstein's model-T. But with Saperstein's savvy and the players' skills, the Globetrotters would become a worldwide sensation.

Globetrotter: How Abe Saperstein Shook Up the World of Sports is the fascinating biography of Saperstein, a five-foot-three promoter who made an amazing impact in a sport where height is at a premium. After Saperstein founded the Harlem Globetrotters in the 1920s, they battled everything from blizzards to bigotry, steadily building a reputation for talent and comedy until their footprint covered the entire world.

Abe Saperstein's impact went well beyond the Harlem Globetrotters. He helped keep baseball's Negro Leagues alive, was a force in getting Satchel Paige his shot at the majors, and befriended Olympic star Jesse Owens when he fell on hard times. When Saperstein started the American Basketball League, he pioneered the three-point shot, which has dramatically changed the sport. Globetrotter reveals the tireless work and impressive achievements of a man and a basketball team that made millions of people laugh, gasp, and applaud at their astounding performances.

Jonathan Eig, Pulitzer Prize winner for King: A Life calls Globetrotter, "A beautifully written, nuanced portrait of one of America's most interesting, influential, and overlooked sports figures. Globetrotter dazzles with its fine writing and scores over and over again with its impressive research. It's a winner."

ANSH-EH ZAFON REGION

Bruce Martin
Ansh-eh Zafon

Synagogue involvement has been a major part of my life. As a teen, I ran Junior Congregation Services and served on the Executive of my shul's USY chapter. Eventually this led to my involvement with men's clubs on a club level serving for many years as President and running a variety of programs.

Soon enough I became active with our region, Lake Ontario Region which is now known as Ansh-Eh Zafon. I have chaired numerous retreats, the Yellow Candle program as well as running several Man of the Year events in Toronto. I served as Ansh-Eh Zafon president from 2020-2022.

My involvement with FJMC International didn't really begin until my first LDI at Pearlstone Resort around 10 years ago. It was there where I learned about The Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs and all it has to offer its regions and clubs. I worked as marketing chair for the Toronto Convention even though I had never attended one before and co-chaired marketing for the Chicago convention that ended up being virtual due to Covid.

Working in The Jewish Community has always been a passion of mine. In 2022, I chaperoned the youth baseball team at the Maccabi Games in Israel. Currently I am volunteering at the new Toronto Holocaust Museum teaching school children from all walks of life about the horrors of the Shoah.

I have been a business owner since graduating with a degree in Business and Finance and operated a printing company till 2021. Currently I own and operate a greeting card company in Support of Make A Wish, Canada.

I have been married to my amazing wife, Cathy for 38 years and have 3 sons, Jacob (Kelsey), Noah and Joseph. This past June, we were blessed with the arrival of our first Grandchild, Seth.

I am extremely honoured (Canadian spelling) to be Ansh-Eh Zafon's Ma'asim Tovim recipient this year. I wish a hearty Mazal Tov to my fellow honourees.

ANSHEI DAROM REGION

Alan Lightstone
Anshei Darom

I am a devoted husband, father, and retired professional whose life reflects a commitment to family, Jewish values, and community leadership. With a career spanning over three decades and a passion for creative and spiritual pursuits, I have made an enduring impact in both my professional and personal spheres.

My wife Sharon and I have shared 32 years of marriage, building a life together filled with love, respect, and shared values. We have raised two accomplished children, Jenna and Jordan, who continue to be a source of pride and joy. This past year we were overjoyed with the marriage of our daughter to Ian and we look forward to being grandparents one day.

My deeper engagement with Judaism began with my marriage to Sharon. A pivotal moment came when we decided to keep a kosher home—a significant shift from my upbringing in a Long Island "Conservative" Jewish household where keeping kosher was something the rabbis did. Shabbat dinners became a cherished family tradition, where we would gather with our children and whatever friends stopped by that week for meals and meaningful discussions about the weekly parsha—this reinforced my family's bond and shared commitment to Jewish life. I am proud to say that both of my children honor Shabbat traditions in their own homes.

After a 34-year career at UPS where I excelled in Pricing Strategy, Revenue Management, and Revenue Management Systems I retired. Known for my strategic vision and collaborative leadership, my contributions left a lasting legacy of innovation and success.

Retirement has provided me with the opportunity to explore personal interests alongside my leadership roles in my volunteer activities. My love for cooking continues to thrive as have my other hobbies which include woodworking, hiking and gardening. These activities provide me a balance of creativity, physical activity, and personal fulfillment.

My dedication to Judaism extended beyond my family into active involvement in synagogue life. Over the years, I've taken on various roles, including heading the Social Action Committee and serving as a member of the Board of Trustees. My leadership skills and passion for community-building led me to hold significant positions in Jewish organizations:

- President of the Etz Chaim Men's Club
- Vice President of Fundraising for Congregation Etz Chaim
- Current President of the Anshei Darom Region of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC)

Through these roles, I have championed initiatives that strengthen Jewish identity, foster community engagement, and promote acts of tikkun olam (repairing the world).

Mitchell Goldblatt
Connecticut

A Connecticut native, Mitch graduated from Amity High School in Woodbridge, CT, received a BA Degree in Political Science from Muhlenberg College (Allentown, PA) and an MBA Degree in Management from the University of New Haven (West Haven, CT).

After nearly two decades in various purchasing positions for Connecticut manufacturing firms, Mitch was elected to his first of three terms as First Selectman of the Town of Orange. Following a two-year role in real estate, Mitch became the Director of Human Resources for the Town of Guilford, a position he holds today. He is also an adjunct professor of Public Administration and Labor Relations at the University of New Haven.

Since he was very young, Mitch has been an active participant and volunteer in various civic, political, and religious organizations. He has served as Reunion Chairman for both his high school and college classes, and currently is the chair of the Orange Recycling Committee and a member of the Orange Pension Board. He has been the Building Chair for both the Library and the Fire House, and is a member of the Bond Oversight Committee. A former Town Constable and member of the Orange Town Plan and Zoning Commission, he also served as Chair of the Orange Inland Wetlands Commission for a decade. Mitch has been a member of the Orange Board of Selectmen for over thirty years, and is a member and former President of the Connecticut Public Employer Labor Relations Association (ConnPELRA).

In 2016 he was voted by readers of The Orange Times as a Volunteer of the Year, in 2017 he received the Keeper of the Flame Award from the Congregation Or Shalom (Orange, CT) Men's Club, in 2022 he was named a Paul Harris Fellow by the Orange Rotary Club, and in 2023 he was presented the O'Sullivan Award for Public Service.

As a teen, he was a member of Beth Israel Synagogue (Derby, CT) chapter of United Synagogue Youth (USY) and attended USY Encampment. In college, he was a member of Hillel and after graduation became an active Men's Club and synagogue member.

Since the merger of Beth Israel Synagogue and Congregation Or Shalom, Mitch has been an active board member of the Or Shalom Men's Club and the Jewish Community. In 2004 the Jewish Historical Society of Greater New Haven recognized Mitch as a Prominent Jewish-American Political Leader with New Haven Connections.

His late father Barry Goldblatt, a 2011 recipient of the Keeper of the Flame, was a founder of the Yellow Candle Program to perpetuate the memory of the Holocaust. Mitch has been extremely involved in that effort, as chair of the Congregation Or Shalom Yellow Candle Program in 2015. Then, in 2020, Mitch accepted the position of Yellow Candle co-chair for the Connecticut Valley Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, a position that he still holds today.

Beginning in 2023, Mitch spearheaded the local Yellow Lights Program with the Or Shalom Men's Club to mark International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Mitch and his wife Abby, are the proud parents of two adult children, Carl and Shayna.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MITCHELL GOLDBLATT

Jonathan Zimmer
Florida

Jon was born in Huntington Station, Long Island, NY and lived there until he was 14, after his parents got sick of the weather, high taxes, and congestion of living in New York and wisely moved to sunny Sarasota, Florida. After graduating college at the University of Florida (Go Gators!), Jon moved to Tampa and has been there for 26 years.

Jon has been an active member of Congregation Kol Ami for over 20 years and served as Security Chair before becoming active in Brotherhood, thanks to Barry Dvorchik (z'l) and his mentorship. He's implemented several annual traditions of successful programming such as Firearm Safety Day, Cigars and Spirits Night, Hearing Men's Voices sessions, and more.

Jon's greatest accomplishment is being a father to Alissa, his 10 year old daughter. He's a Business Development Manager for a chemical company in their healthcare division. His hobbies include spending time outdoors, traveling around the country, watching the Gators, enjoying a good stout, pale ale or scotch, and spending time with Alissa.

Stephe Sturman
Hudson Valley

Stephe Sturman is an active member of Temple Sinai in Middletown NY, where he has had the pleasure to serve as Men's Club President, Board of Trustee member and Temple President.

He is a hairdresser for 51 years, 22 of which were spent traveling the U.S and Canada as a platform artist and educator, doing hair shows, symposiums and continuing Ed conferences. He served as Director and Chair for the New York State Design Team (The educational body for the New York State Cosmetology Association) and Director of Hair America (the educational body for the National Cosmetology Association). He was a national designer and platform artist for TRESSA International as well as national designer and Artistic Director for IT&LY Hair Fashion, North America.

He is a collector of ancient artifacts, mostly Egyptian and Roman/Holyland in origin, and enjoys stringing and selling jewelry made with ancient beads ranging from 2,000 to 3,500 years old.

He is proud of his involvement with FJMC and the privilege of having been President of Hudson Valley Region FJMC, and having served as chair of FJMC's Inclusion initiative.

He takes pride in having been recognized by the Jewish Federation of Orange County as Volunteer of the Year and by Temple Sinai Men's Club as Man of the Year.

A special honor was being named last year's recipient of the Hudson Valley Region Stanley Stern Award for Exemplary Service.

Stephe lives in Middletown, NY and has been fortunate to travel the world with his husband and partner of 50 years, Rob Abramson.

He believes that it is the responsibility of each of us to do what is in our power to help one another in whatever way we can.

To see the change, we must be the change.

KIO+ REGION

Karl Rubin
KIO+

Karl Rubin is a financial advisor with Voya Financial Advisors and lives in Columbus, Ohio with his wife, Sharon Simon, who is a clinical therapist. His son Jacob is 30 years old and is a consultant for Price Waterhouse Coopers. Jacob lives, works and skis in Denver, Colorado.

Karl has been involved with the FJMC for over 15 years, ever since a few members of his local synagogue, Congregation Tifereth Israel, found out he could make a pretty mean latke and had not really played much poker and asked him to join the Men's Club poker group. Shortly after sharing his stack with his Jewish brothers, Karl went on to become Tifereth Israel's Men's Club secretary, vice-president and then eventually Club president. A short period later he was asked to become the regional president of KIO+, a role he happily embraced. As he got more involved in not only Men's Club but other shul activities, he began reading Torah and became a board member of his shul. One thing led to another, and after going to LDI a few times and learning new skills he became vice president of his synagogue and eventually became president of Congregation Tifereth Israel in Columbus.

Among the many FJMC International roles Karl has embraced are being on numerous committees, leading discussions during Hearing Men's Voices sessions and chairing the very successful FJMC Affinity Groups and Webinars for two years. In his role as Affinity groups chair he helped engage thousands of people around the world and helped people stay connected, even in the midst of a world pandemic. Additionally, Karl has for many years been both a board member and an honorary board member of the Foundation for Jewish Life.

One of Karl's passions has always been Israel and it's people. Most recently over the past two years, Karl has been the chairman of FJMC Israel Programming and Affairs. Shortly after the tragic events of October 7, 2023, he created the very successful Israel On My Mind Webinars and Reflections. Israel On My Mind is a program that has a two-fold approach. First, members and non-members are invited to share their personal thoughts, feelings and connection to Israel by writing a personal reflection. These are then shared with others via the FJMC website. The second component of Israel On My Mind presents monthly webinars with those who have some personal connection to Israel. Subjects have ranged from a live feed from the Soroka Medical Center in Israel which received many of the early casualties from October 7, to representatives and participants of the Israel Lone Soldier program to interviewing the presidents of Mercaz USA and Canada and sharing their insight regarding the World Zionist Organization and Israel today. Encouraging American and Canadian Jews to participate in the Mercaz election is another of the projects he has embraced.

In his spare time Karl is passionate about biking and fundraising for Pelotonia which is a one day annual cycling event with the James Cancer Research Hospital at The Ohio State University. He has been training and riding with a group of cyclists where the goal has been to ride 100 miles in one day for the past 10 years where the ultimate goal is to find a cure for cancer during our lifetime.

Karl keenly understands that in life, people bring you to people and that many of us are where we are today because of the people around us. In particular, for his FJMC journey, he greatly appreciates the support and guidance he has been given by Doug Segerman, Stan Greenspan, Tom Sudow, Allan Kahan and Norm Kurtz. Additionally, he deeply values the friendships he has developed over the years because of FJMC. Clearly, without those friendships he wouldn't be here today.

Art Lashin
Mid-Atlantic

Art Lashin is a dedicated individual who has significantly impacted his synagogue and community. Art and his wife, Eileen, have been members of Beth Sholom Congregation in Elkins Park since 1976 and have shown unwavering dedication to their faith and community. Art has held various leadership positions within the Men's Club, including President, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, and Programming VP, demonstrating his commitment and leadership within the organization. Art's passion for the Men's Club is unwavering, rooted in his belief that it provides a valuable platform for men to engage with and contribute to the Jewish community. He cherishes the sense of camaraderie and the enriching activities organized by the Men's Club, which significantly contribute to the congregation's social, religious, and educational experiences.

His involvement extends to the Middle Atlantic Region, where he served as Regional President and Treasurer and contributed to organizing events such as the Man of the Year, Leadership Development Institute, and the Quad Retreat. Additionally, Art has been actively involved with the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, serving as the FJMC Shoah Yellow Candle™ Program Chair and a member of the FJMC Executive Committee and the FJMC Board of Directors.

Outside of his community involvement, Art had a successful 42-year career as a managing attorney at a major Philadelphia law firm. He dedicated his free time to philanthropy, including volunteering at the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation and serving for twenty years as a board member and Vice President at the Hebrew Free Loan of Greater Philadelphia.

Art's life is guided by the motto, "Always find time for things that make you happy to be alive." His diverse hobbies, such as traveling, gardening, fishing, and birding, reflect this philosophy. These activities bring him joy and showcase his zest for life, love for exploration, and appreciation of nature.

Art and Eileen have been happily married for 48 years, a testament to their enduring love and commitment. They have two children, Andrew and Debra, their spouses, Jillian and Adam, and four grandchildren: Everly, Brielle, Emmy, and Lennox. Their close-knit family is a source of joy and strength for Art, and their support has been instrumental in his many achievements.

Art is honored as the 2024 Middle Atlantic Region Man of the Year for his outstanding contributions, which have left a lasting impact on his synagogue and region. His dedication to synagogue and community service continues to inspire others, and his priorities align with enhancing membership growth, club retention, and programming. Art expresses his heartfelt gratitude to the MAR Regional Board and his friends at the Beth Sholom Men's Club for their continuous support in nurturing the growth and needs of his Club, Region, and FJMC.

To our beloved husband, father, and grandfather, whose life epitomizes selflessness and good deeds.

As your family, we have witnessed your unwavering love, dedication, and countless hours devoted to the Middle Atlantic Region, the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, and the Men's Club of Beth Sholom Congregation, Elkins Park, PA. Your contributions have made a significant difference to many and have inspired pride in your colleagues.

We are incredibly proud of your remarkable leadership, accomplishments, charitable work, selfless endeavors, and unwavering commitment to Jewish causes. You exemplify what it means to live and work with genuine purpose and integrity.

Your incredible sense of humor and quick wit always brighten our day. We are so proud of you!

With All Our Love,

Mazal Tov, Alan!

We take great pride in your service to FJMC as International President.

You have demonstrated leadership, initiative and commitmentand have distinguished yourself as a role model and mensch.

Your tireless dedication to the men of our movement is exemplary. FJMC has been fortunate to have you serve in this role just as we at Temple Sinai have been blessed by your extraordinary leadership.

May you continue to go from strength to strength!

Thank You from Alan Budman

There are so many people who contributed to the success we have enjoyed during the last two years. No administration is successful without many, many people working very hard to accomplish its goals, and the Budman/Tomar Administration was no exception. Please join me in thanking the Executive Committee Team and my closest advisors and right-hand men, Honorary President Allan Kahan, 1st Vice President Bruce Tomar and Executive Director Rabbi Noam Raucher for the passion you brought to the table and the leadership you gave to your respective portfolios. I know that Bruce will do a tremendous job as FJMC President.

Thanks to the Past International Presidents and mentors, who provided me guidance, support and dedication to the organization in my journey to and during this role.

Thanks to all the various leaders of signature FJMC programs and the members too numerous to mention.

And to all the other men (and women) who made all the various facets of our organization function smoothly and successfully at all levels, thank you for your dedication and passion to the FJMC. Yasher Koach!

And finally, to my wife, Susan, our children, Heather and her husband Chris, Traci and her husband Dustin, and our beautiful granddaughters Isabella and Avary, I thank you for your support and love. I love you all!

Thank you!

Michael Greenberg
Midwest

Michael was born in Chicago, Illinois and attended synagogue and schools located on the southeast side of Chicago. He first became active in the Jewish Community in high school as a member of Golden AZA and later attending Hillel in college. From grammar school through college he played trumpet and was an avid photographer.

Professionally, he received a PhD in Chemistry from the University of Illinois, College of Pharmacy, Department of Medicinal Chemistry, and worked as a scientist and Research Director for over 36 years in the food industry. Thirty years were spent working for the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company during which he was an Inventor listed on over fifty five issued United States patents, numerous international patents, and author/coauthor on numerous publications in peer reviewed journals.

Michael joined Congregation Beth Shalom, Northbrook, Illinois in 1990 and became active in their Men's Club. He was the Club Treasurer, and held Vice President Positions in House, Membership, and Ways and Means. After a two year stint as Executive Vice President, he was the Club President during which they won FJMC Quality Club Awards and Torch Awards. In 2001, he became the Clubs Man of the Year and in 2010 he became the Kavod honoree. He was the Congregation Beth Shalom Youth Basketball Coach for two seasons, was the unofficial photographer at all major synagogue and Men's Club events, and sounded the shofar during High Holidays at Beth Shalom for twenty one years before retiring in 2020.

He became active in the Federation of Jewish Men's Club Midwest Region, serving as the Recording Secretary, Vice President, Executive Vice President and from 2013-15 as President. He was an editor and contributor to the Region Website, and the Region Newsletter entitled "The Communicator". He was the Region Photographer at Man of the Year, Region Events and International Conventions for over two decades. Key accomplishments as President included starting a Softball Tournament & BBQ- first held in 2013 which morphed into a Region Softball league that continues to this day, creating a Tu B'Shvat Haggadah for Clubs to hold Seders that was distributed to Region clubs, and expanding the annual Man of Year to include Youth of the Year with a fund raising option to support Youth Groups. Another major program improvement as a result of his efforts was the Midwest Region FJMC Retreat which was held from May 2-4, 2014 at Starved Rock State Park, Illinois. This major improvement involved a combination of venue, speakers, kosher food (yes, meat!!), libations, and plenty of ruach

In 2019, he authored a Jewish World War II history book entitled "Tables Turned on Them- Jews Guarding Nazi POWs Held in the United States". He presented the story behind the book at the 2019 FJMC Convention in Toronto, made over 30 Zoom Webinars to FJMC clubs from 2020-2021, 3 webinars to FJMC, and others to the National World War II Museum, the Chicago Jewish Historical Society, and Jewish War Veterans.

As a photographer, his images have been exhibited in the Greater Chicago Jewish Festival Art Fair, and many local galleries. Others have appeared in print such as the Fall 2012 Issue of "Voices of Conservative Judaism", the February 1, 2013 Jewish Daily Forward, the April 2016 cover photo and August 2019 issues of the Chicago Jewish News, and the 2020 Calendar of The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

Michael has been married for over 40 years to his lovely wife, Judi, and they have lived in Northbrook for over 40 years. They have one son, Rob who is married to Molly and they live in Libertyville with our three year old granddaughter Ruby.

NEW ENGLAND REGION

Elliott Feldman
New England

Elliot has been active in leadership roles since he became President of the Temple Israel Brotherhood in Sharon at age 35. Some years later, he became the President of the New England Region, where he initiated the Region's first-ever Chili Cookoff, a very successful program. After finishing his term, he was named the national Vice President of Operations and then Vice President of Clubs. As VP of Operations, he led the effort to outsource the FJMC office operations, resulting in the hiring of Officense. As VP of Clubs, Elliot's committee helped bring in eight new clubs into FJMC and worked to increase the number of affinity groups within the FJMC webinars to six. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Focus on Families and Attracting Young Men Committee, a cause he holds dear for two reasons: the survival of FJMC depends on attracting younger men, and he believes that these men deserve the enriched lives and friendships that come with joining a men's club. This membership can help them overcome the isolation that so many of them face.

Elliot brings the same passion to his professional life. For over forty years, he has helped older people who have lost vision become more independent. It gives him great joy when patients tell him that he has significantly improved their lives. He is gratified to know that the program model he built many years ago is now being adopted by agencies serving people who are visually impaired across the country.

His volunteer activities include serving on the boards of the Sharon Council on Aging and Health & Social Services Consortium Elder Services. He has a particular interest in how society can help improve the health and quality of life of at-risk elders.

He is a past Vice President of Temple Israel of Sharon and a past chairman of several committees at Temple Israel, including a major gifts committee. Elliot is also a co-founder of the Temple Emanu-El Brotherhood of Providence.

He and his wife, Marcia, are the proud parents of four children: Joshua and Caroline, Amanda and Jonathon, Adam and Alison, and Sarah and Adam. They are thrilled to be the grandparents of six grandchildren, all five years old or younger: Jade, Ella, Eden, Piper, Landon, and Shay.

Elliot's hobbies include home repairs, baking desserts, and trying to keep up with his grandchildren.

Milton Liptz
New York Metro

Milton and his wife, Carol, have been members of Temple Beth El for more than forty years. Their three children had attended the Hebrew School and Hebrew High School, and had their Bat and Bar Mitzvahs at Temple Beth El. Their eight grandchildren have enjoyed taking part in many Temple events.

Milton earned a BBA from Bernard Baruch College, CUNY, and a Master's Degree from NYU in Educational Supervision and Administration. He was the Principal of "The Business, Computer Applications and Entrepreneurship Magnet High School" in NYC. Prior to that he was the Director of the "Work Experience and Training Unit" for the NYC Department of Education, and has also held various supervisory and administrative positions in the Educational field.

Although now retired from the Department of Education, he has continued to teach Introductory Business Management and Marketing Courses at St. John's University. He has also taught courses at LaGuardia Community College, and The Parsons School of Fashion at The New School.

As a member of the Board of Trustees at Temple Beth El, Milton is an active participant at Daily Minyans, Shabbat services, and at Holiday events. President of the Men's Club for the past six years, he has presided over many religious, cultural, and social programs for the Temple, including: The World Wide Wrap, Men's Club and Veterans Shabbats, Kristallnacht Memorial Programs, Yom HaShoah candle lighting programs, Tuesday Trivia programs held during COVID, Monday Night at the Movies with the Men's Club showing various Moriah Films purchased from the Simon Wiesenthal Center, and Drive-In Movies/Barbecue programs held in June. Trips have been organized to the Museum of Jewish Heritage, Tenement Museum, various Synagogues, as well as to various Sporting Events. Milton has established a Northwell Health Collaborative with eight Partners including Community Synagogues and the JCC, where pertinent medical issues/concerns are shared with the Congregants.

The Men's Club of Temple Beth El of Cedarhurst has won Torch Awards; A Gold Medal in the category of "Coping with COVID"; and a Silver Medal in the category of "Men's Health Programs". In addition, the Men's Club has won "The Quality Club Award" for six consecutive years.

Milton is an avid sports fan. He and his wife, Carol, a Clinical Psychologist, love to travel, and have visited many countries around the world. They also enjoy Broadway Shows, concerts, and museums. Above all, they love spending time with their family.

Always an enthusiastic person, Milton believes that a leader is only as strong as the people he works with. He is a team player who is very proud of the accomplishments of The Men's Club at Temple Beth El, and he is honored to be chosen MA'ASIM TOVIM representing the New York Metropolitan Region.

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY REGION

Rob Blitzer
Northern New Jersy

Rob and his wife, Jerri, had been involved members of Beth El Synagogue in East Windsor, NJ for over 30 years. Jerri, had been Youth Commissioner and daughters Monica [past USY chapter president] and Stephanie were both very involved with youth groups and social action. For Rob, Men's Club was his chance to be in the Youth group he never was as a kid. Prior to becoming involved with Men's Club, Rob served on the synagogue board including executive positions as Fundraising and Membership Vice President.

After becoming his club's Man of the Year, Rob left the synagogue board and became Men's Club president. During his first term as president, the Club won a Torch Award for its World Wide Wrap program. During his second stint as club president, sharing the club presidency with Marshall Alter, the Beth El Synagogue Men's Club was awarded the Quality Club Award, which it received year after year. Beth El Synagogue Men's Club served the community well, living up to its motto: Help out and have fun!

At some point Rob was asked to join the Northern New Jersey Region (NNJR) board, where he has been working to help Jewish guys from Jersey get the most out of FJMC. His first big role for the region was chairing the convention committee and with his efforts, a record number of attendees from the NNJR community descended upon Philadelphia (2009).

Rob believes community is critical to fostering the FJMC's mission of involving Jewish men in Jewish life. The rewards of community and Jewish living are most evident at convention and regional retreats. For many years, Rob chaired the biennial multi-region retreat, successfully coordinating with leaders from the Hudson Valley, Middle Atlantic and New York Metro Regions. This past year the retreat welcomed FJMC Executive Director Noam Raucher and his kids, to another successful multi-region retreat. The success of the retreat was really measured by the tremendous friendship, learning and camaraderie that the men took with them, not to mention the amazing bonfire Saturday night.

Rob continued to take on leadership positions within NNJR, and eventually became NNJR President in 2020 – – more like virtual President as Covid put a stop to all in-person events. Rob helped keep NNJR afloat by pivoting to virtual events on Zoom, including the Presidents' Dinner and Man of the Year programs. These successful events provided a blueprint for FJMC and other regions to follow.

While he continues to devote time to the NNJR as part of the executive board, Rob has become more involved at the international level of FJMC. This past year he chaired the Leadership Development Institute (LDI), has been involved with new club recruitment and is co-chair of Programming for the 2025 FJMC Convention.

Rob is honored to be the NNJR Ma'asim Tovim honoree. In large part, he says, it is because of the support of his wife, Jerri, that he has been able to help out and have fun as part of the FJMC

We make a living by what we get.

Bob Watts
Seaboard

Bob Watts grew up in rural Connecticut, attended college in Florida, and Columbia U. for a Masters of International Affairs, and went to work for the State Department as a Foreign Service Economic Officer. His served overseas in Portugal and Brazil, and State sent him to Stanford for a MA in Economics, and after returning to DC, Bob met his beshert Linda at the State Department.

Bob grew up in an observant Episcopalian family, but had always been drawn to Judaism through friends and girlfriends. He completed his journey when he met Linda, who grew up in Cherry Hill, NJ. He and Linda were transferred to Peru where Bob studied for conversion in Spanish with the Masorti Rabbi there, and had his beit din at Temple Beth Sholom in Cherry Hill in 1994. Bob and Linda served together in Canada and Uzbekistan, with their two little children. Bob's first Men's Club experience in Ottawa.

Bob and Linda (and Vega and Zach) finally put down roots in Northern Virginia in 2004, and joined Congregation Olam Tikvah in Fairfax, VA. One fateful night during the 2004 AL pennant race, Bob answered a call and agreed to help out with the Men's Club to get off the phone and back to watching his Sox beat the Yankees.

Bob retired after 30 years as a diplomat in 2010, and stayed on part-time as a consultant at State until March 2025. While spending most of his as an economist, in his last job Bob picked up many social media, communications and IT skills. Stan Greenspan met Bob at the 2011 Convention and asked him to edit The Unraveller haftarah commentary. He set up the first FJMC webinars and has led the organization on social media, tech training, video and photography, and set up the FJMC Youtube channel.

Bob also felt that to deepen his FJMC commitment he needed to take up leadership, and became club President. He launching successful fundraising efforts, and with the club won two Gold Torch Awards for promoting Israel/Masorti causes. Bob became Seaboard Region President in 2021, followed by his appointment to the FJMC Executive Committee in 2021. He managed the migration and setup of the new FJMC website.

Bob became FJMC Secretary in 2023, and was nominated to be a Vice President for 2025-2027. He also manages the website, chairs the regional leadership program, and is on the Convention Programming, Inclusion, and International Committees. He supports club and region activities, organizing the region 2022 retreat, and helps coordinate work with the Abayudaya Jews of Uganda. He went with a FJMC delegation to Uganda in December, 2024 – January, 2025.

Bob has been active in other volunteer organizations. He was in the board of the regional Holocaust Commission, served on the board of his local JCC, is on the board of the Alumni Association of New College of Florida and mentors students on international careers. He is a member of the Fairfax County Democratic Committee, and manages the Olam Tikvah livestream. He loves classical music and every summer he and Linda spend time at the Wintergreen Music Festival in the Blue Ridge Mountains, often accompanied by children Vega, who lives in in Richmond, VA, and Zach, a graduate student in history at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA. The family is growing, as Zach is engaged to marry Ruby Jackson, a 4th grade teacher in Harrisonburg, the week after the 2025 FJMC Convention.

Bob is extremely proud and honored to have been chosen the region Ma'asim Tovim for 2025, and looks forward to continuing to work with his brothers to move the FJMC forward.

TRI-STATE REGION

Jonathan Epstein
Tri-State

Tri-State Region

Jonathan D. Epstein is President of the Tri-State Region and President of the Temple Beth Tzedek Brotherhood in Buffalo, N.Y., where he has been a member since moving to Buffalo with his wife, Judy, in 2004. He has led the Brotherhood for most of the last 16 years, reinvigorating it twice with the help of a core group of members and the synagogue's spiritual and lay leadership. He is also a current member of the synagogue's Board of Trustees, where he has previously served as Treasurer and Secretary, and chaired its Shofar newsletter committee.

Jonathan has been involved in FJMC since 2008, after being invited and recruited to participate in the Leadership Development Institute by former FJMC International President Stan Greenspan and other members of the former Lake Ontario Region from Toronto. He has attended several LDIs and international conventions since then, including in California, Boston, Toronto, Philadelphia, and most recently the current convention in Chicago.

He has been President of Tri-State since 2021, after succeeding Alex Kiderman, shortly after the Western New York clubs were transferred from Lake Ontario Region (renamed Anshe Tzafon) to the Tri-State Region just prior to the Covid-19 pandemic. He took on a second two-year term in 2023, and will be succeeded by Steve Haberman in 2025. Jonathan is also Vice Chair of FJMC's Young Men's/Young Families Initiative, a member of the HaD'var Newsletter Committee and Marketing Committee, a member of the International initative, a member of the 2025 Nominating Committee, and a member of the Strategic Task Force.

Professionally, Jonathan is a national and statewide award-winning Financial Reporter at The Buffalo News, covering real estate and development amidst the ongoing resurgence of Buffalo. He is part of the Business Next business desk covering Buffalo's business community, and previously covered banking, insurance, and real estate together for the newspaper.

Prior to joining the News in January 2004, Jonathan spent six and a half years covering banking, credit cards and insurance for The News Journal in Wilmington, Del., a 150,000-circulation Gannett Co. daily newspaper. He also covered small business lending. He began his career as a Community Banking reporter and deputy Community Banking section editor for The American Banker, a daily financial services newspaper owned by Thomson Corp., from July 1994 to August 1997.

A native of Schenectady, N.Y., Jonathan earned his bachelor's degree in history and political science from University of Rochester in 1993 and his master's in print journalism from Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism in 1994. He was also a journalism fellow at the Stonier Graduate School of Banking program at University of Delaware in 1997, a National Press Foundation Fellow in 2000, and a fellow of the Columbia Age Boom Academy in 2023.

Jonathan is active in the Jewish community in Western New York, where he is a past recipient of the Buffalo Jewish Federation's Ann & Meyer Riwchun Emerging Leadership Award. He is also immediate past-president of Kadimah Academy, a private K-8 Jewish day school organization in Western New York that is now collaborating with the Park School of Buffalo on an innovative partnership called Kadimah Scholars at Park.

He is married to a University of Rochester alumna, with a daughter at UR and a son in Kadimah Scholars at Park School, and resides in Amherst, N.Y.

WESTERN REGION

Benny Sommerfeld
Western

Benny Sommerfeld was born in Gothenburg (Göteborg), Sweden. Early on he was involved in the Jewish community through sports, playing soccer ("real" football) and the youth movement, Habonim. During his years in Sweden was active in the Jewish Congregation of Gothenburg as President of the Information Board and a member of the Youth and Leisure Board. He was part of a group that created the Jewish Local Radio station, with weekly live broadcasts interviewing Jewish personalities in town and playing Jewish music for the listeners. He served as program host and technician controlling the broadcast.

His professional career started as a Chemical Engineer at Volvo Cars. After seven years in Process Engineering, he transferred to Advanced Product Development. This brought him to the USA and California. Instead of returning back to Sweden he decided to stay, after meeting his Beshert wife, Irma at a Shabbat dinner in one of Los Angles' major conservative shuls.

Benny joined Valley Beth Shalom, Encino in 1993 and sang in their adult choir for the next ten years. During that time, he got married (1996). In 2006, he became involved in the Conservative movement through the Temple Etz Chaim Men's Club (MC) when he was asked to help organize the MC Shabbat. Benny was part of the MC Board as VP for different portfolios until he became President of the Club in 2012. He has continued his involvement in the Western Region and after rotating to different positions on the Regional Board, was President of the Western Region from 2017-2019. Benny has continued his leadership role within the FJMC. He has chaired LDI for the regional track twice and is now in his third term as member of the Executive Committee.

Benny served a layman Cantor in his congregation (until they found a Cantor) and is still part of the community until today. He has transitioned from engineering to becoming a clergy. Benny currently serves as the Associate Chaplain at his temple, while finishing his master's program to become a Jewish Chaplain.

Benny resides in Thousand Oaks California with his wife Irma, and they have two daughters, Naomi and Marissa who still live in Los Angeles.

fjmc™ INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

EMBRACING CHANGE • ENERGIZING COMMUNITIES

AWARD SECTION

QUALITY CLUB AWARDS

The FJMC Quality Club Award is given each year to FJMC clubs who meet established criteria for high quality programming, club administration and involvement at the regional and international levels. This award was developed to encourage clubs to pursue excellence in these areas. The Quality Club criteria may serve as an invaluable template for any club to follow in planning its yearly activities and goals. Clubs that qualify for the award receive an engraved plaque that can hold up to 15 annual award tags. The awards are presented in even-numbered years at a regional event and in odd-numbered years at the FJMC International Convention.

Award Criteria

To qualify for the award, your club must satisfy all six (6) Mandatory Requirements, and at least ten (10) of the twenty (20) Optional Requirements (including at least one from each category). Please note that being current with your membership list (in Chaverot) and FJMC dues payments are essential to achieving the award. Please see the Quality Club Award Criteria page on the FJMC website for more information.

Application Deadline

The deadline for submitting a 2023-2024 Quality Club Award application will be Friday, May 31, 2024. All applications must be received by then to be considered for the award. There are often clubs that satisfy all the criteria, but don't apply and are not considered for the award. Please don't be one of those clubs–get your application in on time!!!

FJMC believes that all clubs deserve recognition for the great work that you do in your synagogues and communities. We encourage you to look over the criteria now. If your club is functioning well, you will most likely meet many, if not all, of them. If you are missing any, there is plenty of time to plan and fulfill the requirements. Winning the FJMC Quality Club Award brings with it a great sense of accomplishment and pride which can be a tremendous asset to your club.

Any questions or comments, please contact the Quality Club Award Committee at fjmcqualityclubawards@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Steve Silverstone

QUALITY REGION AWARDS CRITERIA

The FJMC Quality Club Award represents excellence and shows it to your fellow club members and congregation. This program was developed to encourage clubs to offer specific types of activities at the local, regional, and international level. The awards are given each year to FJMC affiliated clubs who meet established criteria. The Quality Club Award criteria list may also be used as a blueprint for a club to follow in planning its annual programs, organizing its club administration, and implementing a communication plan, since they represent best practices. The award plate (tag), to be added to your club's plaque, is presented in even numbered years at a regional event and in odd numbered years at the FJMC International Convention.

CLUB ACTIVITIES: (Choose any 4)

1. 50% of clubs have registered online and conducted the World Wide Wrap.
2. 50% of clubs have paid their dues in full to the FJMC as of the end of February of the current year and less than 1/3 have past due balances.
3. 50% of clubs have submitted a current and/or updated membership as of May 1st. For your information, dues for the following year are based on the roster detail as of August 31st of each year.
4. 60% of clubs have, within the last year, run any FJMC Program (as listed on fjmc.org)
5. 25% of the clubs sent at least one member to the previous Convention. 25% of the clubs have registered at least one member to the upcoming Convention by May 1.

TORCH AWARDS

Beginning from its implementation back in 1991, the goal of Torch Awards has been to encourage the development of innovative programming, recognize those clubs that develop quality programming, build community, and support the growth and development of all our FJMC International clubs. Torch Awards is a win win for everyone in our organization! Such signature FJMC programs as the World Wide Wrap, Build A Pair and the Shoah Yellow Candle Memorial Program, began from original club programming submitted for a Torch Award.

And to continue the strong support that our clubs offer to each other, for this cycle, we were privileged to have received 80 application submissions, featuring a wide variety of creative and unique programming ideas, from a total of 29 Men's Clubs and Brotherhoods from all across our FJMC International organization. Torch Awards were offered to be placed in 20 various categories, with the addition this year of adding a category to highlight how our clubs are supporting the combating of antisemitism. We also removed the category of 'Covid 19', with the need for that type of programming hopefully now in our rear-view mirror.

We proudly had application submissions placed in 18 of these 20 available categories. Our committee also oversaw to make sure the applications were felt to be placed in the appropriate category. Each application was scored by two judges, over a variety of criteria, and the average score was used to determine the rankings in each separate category, with, again, our committee working to oversee the accuracy of the judging and award rankings.

The Torch Awards Committee deeply thanks all our FJMC International clubs listed below who submitted applications. At the awards ceremony on Friday, July 4, at the International Convention in Chicago, all of the clubs were honored with either a plaque for a Gold, Silver or Bronze award or with a Certificate of Recognition in appreciation for their excellent service to our organization and, as well, most importantly to all of our communities.

EMBRACING CHANGE • ENERGIZING COMMUNITIES

FOUNDATION SECTION

FJMC FOUNDATION FOR JEWISH LIFE

Who We Are

The purposes for which this Corporation is formed are:
To support the activities, aims and mission of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, Inc. ("FJMC"), a New York not-for-profit corporation which is recognized as tax exempt by the Internal Revenue Service, and to provide funding for activities that will enhance Jewish life now and in the future. It is intended that FJMC and the Foundation will work together to guide and assist Conservative Jewish men in congregational activities and in community and global service. Through this collaboration, the Foundation will strive to help bring knowledge, understanding, and harmony to the Jewish world and its neighbors.

Why I'm Involved

When Tom Sudow asked me to join the Foundation for Jewish Life of the FJMC some ten years ago, I proudly said "Yes," as I understood the vital need to support the good works of the FJMC. As I looked back at my years of affiliation with FJMC, I recalled the invaluable help of Rabbi Simon in the re-creation of my own club in the West End Synagogue in Nashville, Tennessee.

We recreated our Men's Club after an absence of over three decades. As we reached out to our congregation with the gift of a Yellow Yom HaShoah candle for all congregants, we began to appreciate the value of the FJMC, and it has continued to support our club and the Anshei Darom Region with valuable programs that enhance our Jewish lives and make us proud to carry on the traditions of the Jewish people. I felt very honored to be a member of the Foundation for Jewish Life, and when the opportunity to help create the Legacy Society was presented, I jumped in with both feet.

Both Ruthi and I recognized that to maintain the good works of the FJMC in perpetuity, the Foundation needed a long-term fundraising vehicle to help establish an endowment that would grow, and at the same time, support the many initiatives of the FJMC.

I am proud to be a founding member of the Legacy Society and to have made a lifetime gift to ensure that the great works of the FJMC continue into the future.

Dr. Eugene and Ruthi Sacks

FJMC FOUNDATION FOR JEWISH LIFE

Mission Statement

“Just as my fathers planted for me, so shall I plant for my children" – Babylonian Talmud

Why YOU should become a Partner with the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life

Since 2003, the Foundation for Jewish Life, Inc., (FJMC Foundation) has been instrumental in partnering with FJMC to bring leadership, innovation, and community to Conservative/Masorti Jewish Men. Our commitment as leaders and as Jewish men is to ensure that the guiding values which make us better fathers, spouses and Menschen continue as a legacy for future generations. Involvement in your men’s club, your region and the FJMC is a reflection of that commitment. Your support of the FJMC Foundation transforms your gifts into an Endowment which sustains the FJMC to continue to enrich the lives of Jewish Men.

LEADERSHIP

The FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, is committed to addressing men’s leadership role in a changing world. We help build future leaders in the Jewish Community by providing training and tools through funding a yearly Leadership Development Institute. We are striving to make the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, LDI the premier Men’s Jewish leadership development institute in the world.

INNOVATION

The FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, provides ongoing funding for grants to our Men’s clubs for creative initiatives and programming that can be used by our clubs and regions. Providing financial support is paramount for us to continue to develop innovative programming and initiatives such as, Yellow CandlesTM, My Family Conversations, Keruv/Intermarriage, Hearing Men’s Voices, Minyan of Comfort, etc.

COMMUNITY

The FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, builds Community. We build Community by partnering with FJMC to continue forming meaningful long-lasting relationships based on camaraderie, common interests and core values. We bring men together from all over the world to enhance Conservative Judaism and Jewish Life. The years of building these relationships have created something special. Any where you go in the world if you need a friend there will be someone there to help you.

How Can You Be Involved?

How you can be a partner with the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life

Become a Fellow-

You can become a fellow of the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, for as little as $1,000 dollars. Your donation can be distributed/paid for over four years. Gifts over $10,000 dollars may be self directed. We cherish your gifts but more importantly we cherish each of you as part of our family which will allow the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, to make a difference. Help us perpetuate your legacy.

Become a Member of the Legacy Society

Designate a bequest to the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life, and become a member of our Legacy Society. This is not a request to write a check today, rather it is a commitment to leaving a bequest through a will, a life insurance policy or some type of trust. There are two times you can be remembered after you are gone. The first in passing and the second in leaving a gift to the FJMC Foundation for Jewish Life. No matter how small or large the gift yours and your families memory will live on as a legacy foundation member

Help us secure the FJMC and its ideals and programing for the next generation

They say you “CAN ONLY LIVE ONCE BUT YOU CAN DIE TWICE” Once when you pass and again when your good name is no longer known. With a legacy gift to the FJMC Foundation for Jewish life you can ensure that your name lives on as your gift continues to help Jewish Men live Jewish lives in this rapidly changing world.

For questions or to discuss your gift please contact either me or any of the other FJMC Foundation leaders shown on the Become a Fellow page

FJMC Convention 2027!

Our Biennial Event will take place July 2027. Convention is when all of the clubs from all over the world get together and have a great time. The venue is to be determined.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Rebranding - Organizational Guidelines for Promoting the New FJMC International Name, Vision, and Mission
Rabbi Noam Raucher - Executive Director

Purpose:
To ensure a consistent, professional, and inspiring rollout of our rebranded identity—FJMC International, representing Friendship, Judaism, Mentorship, and Community—across all platforms and communication materials, so that our message is clear, compelling, and aligned with our values.

1. Key Messaging - New Organizational Identity
Official Name: FJMC International
Acronym Meaning: Friendship, Judaism, Mentorship, Community

Vision Statement:
Men will cultivate meaningful relationships, a sense of purpose, and physical, emotional, and spiritual health through communities rooted in Jewish values and brotherhood.

Mission Statement:
FJMC provides men opportunities for personal growth, and to build strong relationships. We accomplish this through: celebrating Jewish learning, traditions, and culture; gathering for social events and retreats; performing service projects; engaging over Israel; combating hate and antisemitism; mentoring the next generation of leaders; prioritizing our health and wellness; and by supporting one another in safe and nonjudgmental communities.

THANK YOU!
